

GIRL WEEPS AS PAST IS BARED

Witness Against Gangster
Flees Chair and Runs From Court Room

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—Miss Jean Stanley, one of the complaining witnesses against Alvin Karpis, fled from the witness stand Friday, sought refuge behind Judge Ward's chair and then ran weeping into the judge's chambers when asked if she knew George Boyd, one of three men lynched at Santa Rosa last December in connection with the affair.

The defense asked her on cross-examination under what name she had gone when she lived in Seattle, and whether she knew Boyd there. Protesting against having her past dragged into the trial, the witness desired her chair in tears. The court rebuked the defense attorney and Miss Stanley resumed the stand to another line of questioning.

Miss Jessie Montgomery, the principal witness against McDonald, also broke down while telling her story of the attack made on her early Thursday night. Edmund (Spud) Murphy, "K. O." Kravosky and James Carey already have been charged with attacking her and Thomas Brady was also charged Thursday.

A jury to try McDonald was obtained in two hours in the previous trials. It has taken at least a day to obtain a jury.

FADING BANDIT WOUNDED BY CHICAGO POLICEMAN

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Edward Morris, hunted by the Chicago police department for a week for the murder of a policeman and for numerous other crimes, came out of hiding a long enough last night to attempt a robbery in a store of a policeman and to fight a running pistol duel in which the bandit was wounded. Morris escaped, however, and policemen were sent to the scene of the duel to make a house to house search for him. Although a dozen special details of police have been searching for Morris several days, he spent the afternoon driving around the city in a taxi cab, according to the chauffeur of the machine. Late last night he stopped at a machine at a corner and a few minutes later a collector for a parking ticket, carrying a $5000, approached him. Morris ordered him into the car and the collector, who reported to the police, recognized the bandit, grabbed him by the arm. Morris fired through his overcoat and then ran. Duffy followed, ten shots being exchanged in the running duel. An alley Morris stumbled, but climbed a fence and escaped before Duffy could reach him. Blood stains were found on the fence.

ENGLISH TEXTILE MILLS MAKE IMMENSE PROFITS

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Two hundred and fifty Lancashire cotton mills with a total capital of £21,000,000 paid in 1920 £22,500,000 in dividends, according to a report issued by the American Chamber of Commerce today. One mill paid 42 1/2 per cent. The net dividend in 1920 represented the securities in the London stock exchange during the past year, however, aggregated £210,000,000, the report states.

The expectation of shipping orders continues, the report goes on, one prominent line has withdrawn an order for four large steamers placed with Clyde shipbuilders and instructions have been given to slow down at the firm's own yards. The high cost of construction was given as the reason, ship owners finding it cheaper to purchase existing tonnage than to build new vessels.

The coal output continues highly satisfactory, being maintained at more than 5,000,000 tons weekly.

The total index number of wholesale prices for December showed a further fall of 6.7 per cent. The depreciation on raw materials was 9.21, on metal values 4.3 per cent.

He Makes Folks Rich

REV. DR. R. H. CONWELL

Rev. Dr. Russell H. Conwell, pastor and holder of the Baptist Temple at Philadelphia, has spent his life making other people happy and rich. He has scattered millions of dollars in sermons and has encouraged thousands to go out and earn their own money. Today, at the age of 72, he still earns a yearly salary of nearly $100,000, but has saved nothing. He has gone to make others happy. Dr. Conwell's famous lecture, "Acres of Diamonds," has been delivered 525 times.

One-seventh of the total best lands in the United States are located in Michigan.

JACKSON BOXES DRAW WITH PINKEY MITCHELL

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—While Jackson of New York and Pinky Mitchell of Milwaukee fought 15 rounds to a draw at Madison Square Garden last night.

Major Bludge, who was one of the judges, decided in favor of Jackson, while William Muldoon, the other judge, gave the bout to Mitchell. Referee Louis White then declared the bout a draw. Mitchell weighed 145 pounds and Jackson 154 at 2 p. m. From beginning to end the bout was fast. Mitchell landed more frequently than Jackson delivered the heavier blows. Mitchell's long arm became entangled occasionally around his opponent's neck and he was cautioned at least three times for holding. Mitchell's best round was the seventh in which the men fought three times back and forth across the ring.

ADVERTISE FOR BUSINESS FOR NEW POLICE STATION

(By International News Service.)
PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 27.—"Murderers neatly captured. Burglars followed while you wait. Footpads overpowered promptly. Customers will be treated with courtesy. Why go to the west side to have your police work done when our trained thief catchers on the east side can handle your every requirement?"
Chief of Police Jenkins, of this city, has not studied scientific advertising or he might have framed up a banner sale when he sent display advertisements to Portland newspapers calling attention to the newly established east side station. The advertisements include telephone number and the easiest way to reach the station, and in every way appeal for business in competition with the police station of the west side.
and were so busily exchanging blows at the close of the round that the applause of the spectators drowned out the sound of the bells.
